Evidence-Based Recidivism Reduction (EBRR) Programs

* Bureau Rehabilitation and Values Enhancement (BRAVE) Program – a cognitive-behavioral, residential treatment program for young males serving 1st sentence, to create a smoother adjustment to prison.

* Challenge Program – a program for male inmates in Penitentiary (High Security) facilities. Treats those with substance abuse and/or mental illness disorders (psychotic, mood, anxiety, or personality).

mS Federal Prison Industries Program (UNICOR) is designed to protect society and reduce crime by preparing inmates for successful reentry through job training.

Life Connections Program – a residential faith-based program, not religion specific.

* Mental Health Step Down Program – a program for inmates who do not require inpatient treatment but lack the skills to function in a general population prison setting.

Post-Secondary Education College level classes are provided by credentialed instructors from the community who deliver coursework leading to either the Associates or bachelor's degree.

mS * Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP) – an intensive treatment program where offenders experience living in a pro-social community.

mS Resolve Program – a program for those with a mental health diagnosis related to trauma.

Sex Offender Treatment Program: Nonresidential, (SOTP-NR) – a program for low- to moderate-risk first-time sex offenders with a single history of an Internet sex crime. The BOP Sexual Offender Treatment and Management Program

* Sex Offender Treatment Program: Residential (SOTP-R) – a program for high-risk sex offenders with a history of multiple sex crimes. The BOP Sexual Offender Treatment and Management Program [Butner - Sexual Dangerous Persons]

* Skills Program – a program for inmates with intellectual disabilities, neurological deficits, and social deficiencies (i.e., Autistic).

* Steps Toward Emotional Growth and Awareness (STAGES) Program – a program for those with a serious mental illness and/or a borderline personality disorder.

mS Assert Yourself for Female Offenders In this program, women learn to be assertive while respecting the boundaries of others.

* Female Integrated Treatment (FIT)* Foundation For female inmates with substance use, trauma (PTSD), and other mental illnesses.

mS Foundation Program was designed to help women chart a healthy path for themselves during their time incarcerated
